Mark G. McGlone

Chief Investment Officer
PNC Asset Management Group

Mark McGlone is the Chief Investment Officer of PNC Asset Management Group, including PNC Wealth Management®, Hawthorn, PNC Family Wealth®, and PNC Institutional Asset Management®. In this role, he is responsible for the firm's overall investment strategy, portfolio and risk management, and investment solutions. In addition, he is responsible for the development and execution of investment policies for the Asset Management Group, and serves as chairman of the PNC Investment Policy Committee. Prior to being named to his current position in January 2018, Mark served as Chief Investment Officer and President of PNC Capital Advisors, LLC, a registered investment advisor subsidiary.

Mark joined PNC through its acquisition of Mercantile Safe Deposit & Trust in 2007, during which time he was responsible for all taxable fixed income products for institutional accounts and the registered investment company (RIC), as well as institutional client retention and acquisition.

Mark earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Economy from Johns Hopkins University and a Master of Science degree in Finance from Loyola University (Maryland).
